Judge's Bio

Darle started showing and grooming her parents Scotties as a child, winning her first Group at the age of 12. She has shown and bred Scotties since that time. She worked for a professional handler during her teens and at that time she fell in love with Bouviers and arranged with some friends to bring 3 into Canada for showing and breeding purposes. These were some of the earliest Bouviers brought into Canada and many top winners have come from these lines. Since 1995, she has also been breeding and showing Wire Fox Terriers all under the Beinein prefix. Beinein Kennls has consistently produced dogs who have been Specialty winners, as well as dogs who have been nationally ranked at the top of their breed and their group in Canada and abroad. Darle has been judging since 1999 and has had the honour of judging in Canada, the US, the UK, Europe and New Zealand and has judged several specialties including the US National Rotating for Scottish Terriers. Darle is also well known for her canine artwork, she has done illustrated guides for several breed clubs and limited edition prints in a number of breeds.
