Article I. NAME

The organization shall be called "The Alberta Kennel Club" (AKC). It will hereafter be referred to as the "Club". It is incorporated under the Societies Act of the Province of Alberta and operates pursuant to Societies Act RSA 2000 c.S-14. The Club's area of operation is within a 100 km radius of the City of Calgary.

Article II. MEMBERSHIP

Members, via their vote at General, Special, and Annual Meetings, are responsible for the decisions of the Club: specifically, decisions with regard to organizing All Breed Dog Shows, fund raising, allocation of funds and other resources toward specific activities which meet the goals and objectives of the Club, and approval of financial statements. Members are expected to contribute toward the activities of AKC.

1. Membership Year

Membership in the Club shall begin on the 1st day of November and end on the 31st day of October.

2. Classification of Membership

There shall be the following types of membership:

- a. Regular member –any adult person(s), resident in Alberta, who has made application for membership, whose application has been approved by the Membership and who have paid the membership fee prescribed.
Each Regular member is entitled to one vote.
- b. Associate member – any individual who supports the goals of the Club but who does not reside in the geographical area of operation, is a minor, or who does not actively participate in club activities. These members may volunteer at AKC sanctioned events. They are not required to attend monthly meetings, do not have voting privileges and are not eligible for elected office.
- c. Pro-tem Members – Pro-tem membership is the periodic appointment of a committee or an individual by the Executive for a specific project or purpose. These members do not have voting privileges, do not pay dues and are not eligible for elected office. These members may attend meetings and volunteer at AKC sanctioned events.
- d. Honourary members – the Club may, at any Annual General Meeting, elect honorary members by a unanimous vote of the members present. The Executive may nominate individuals who have made significant contributions to the Club over a long period of time. A notice of intention to propose the name(s) of any intended honorary member(s) shall have been given at the previous monthly general meeting. Honourary members shall not be required to pay annual dues or attend regularly scheduled meetings, but shall enjoy all rights and privileges of regular members.

3. Eligibility for Membership

- a. Any person shall be eligible for membership providing such person is not then under suspension or expulsion by this Club, or by the Canadian Kennel Club, or the Kennel Club (England) or the American Kennel Club, or any other organization incorporated under the Animal Pedigree Act, or registered under the Joint Stock Companies Act (Alberta). If he/she is a member of this Club at the time of his/her suspension or expulsion, his/her membership shall terminate automatically and he/she shall have no claim against the Club or any interest in the property or assets of the Club;
- b. Any person convicted of cruelty or abuse of animals in any jurisdiction shall not be eligible for membership.

4. Application for Membership

- a. Each applicant for membership shall apply by completing and submitting a membership application in the form specified from time to time by the Executive. An applicant for membership must be proposed by two members in good standing of the Club and the signatures of the proposers must appear on the application form. Payment of dues for the current year as outlined under Membership Fees, must accompany the application;
- b. The applicant agrees to abide by the By-laws of the Club; and the rules, policies and the By-laws of the Canadian Kennel Club;
- c. The application will be presented at the next General Meeting. The applicant will be elected by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the regular members present at the meeting;
- d. Any applicant who has been rejected as a new member shall be informed in writing by the Secretary within 30 days of the vote. A rejected applicant must wait one year before applying again for membership.

5. Resignation and Termination of Membership

Memberships may be terminated by:

- a. Resignation – any member in good standing may resign from the Club upon providing written notice to the Executive through the Secretary. Resignation shall be effective upon receipt by the Secretary;
- b. Lapsing – any member in arrears for dues or assessments for any year shall be automatically suspended at the expiration of 90 days from the end of said year and thereafter be entitled to no membership privileges or powers in the Club until reinstated. If a Lapsed Member pays his dues on or before February 1st, that person shall become a Member in Good Standing. In the event that a Lapsed Member fails to pay dues by February 1st, the membership is considered expired and an application for membership must again be completed and voted on by the Membership at a Regular Meeting before membership may be granted. A Lapsed Member is not considered a Member in Good Standing.
- c. Expulsion – the Executive with the support of the majority of voting members, as outlined in Article VI, shall have the power to expel a member for any cause which the Club may deem reasonable. Membership dues may be refunded upon the discretion of the Executive. An expelled member shall have no claim against the Club or any interest in the property or assets of the Club. Expulsion may also be a result of deprivation, suspension, debarment, expulsion or termination of Canadian Kennel Club membership as imposed by the CKC's Discipline Committee.

6. Membership Dues

- a. The annual dues and any other assessments payable by member shall be set from time to time by the Executive with support of the majority of members;
- b. The annual dues are payable on or before the first day of the Club's fiscal year. Dues must be paid for a member to be considered to be in good standing;
- c. No member of the Club is, in his/her individual capacity, liable for a debt or liability of the Club.
- d. New members who apply to join after August 31st, will have their dues considered paid for the upcoming year. This provision applies only to individuals who have never been a member of the Club.

7. Voting Privileges

An individual must be a Regular member or Honourary member in good standing of the Club and be in good standing with the Canadian Kennel Club prior to being granted voting privileges. Unpaid membership dues shall constitute denial of voting privileges. Only Regular and Honorary members may vote, and shall be entitled to one (1) vote, to be cast in person at meetings of the membership. New members will be granted voting privileges after attending four meetings within the first six months of membership.

There shall be no voting by proxy at any meeting

8. Conflict of Interest

All members or any person serving on a Club committee who is in Conflict of Interest or potential Conflict of Interest must declare the conflict and excuse themselves from the decision being made.

All members of the Club are expected to treat all information pertaining to the administration of the Club as strictly confidential. Breaches of confidentiality may be grounds for termination of membership.

Any member of the Club who holds an Officer or Director position with another All-Breed Club within the AKC area of operation will not be included in distribution of the minutes of the Club's meetings.

Article III. MEETINGS, ATTENDANCE, AND QUORUM

1. General Meetings

- a. General Meetings will be held monthly on the second Wednesday of the month. Variance from this schedule may occur if approved by the Executive and twenty-one (21) days written notice of the change is provided to the membership.
- b. Notice of General Meetings shall be given by post, email, telephone or fax to each member ten (10) days prior and shall specify the place, date and hour of the meeting;
- c. The non-receipt of the notice by any member shall not invalidate the proceedings of any resolution passed at a General Meeting;
- d. The President shall chair the General Meeting and if absent the Vice-President shall chair the meeting. Another Executive member may chair the meeting if the President and Vice-President are not available.
- e. When the technology is available, members in good standing may participate in a meeting via electronic link. Those voting members in good standing shall identify themselves for the attendance roll and may participate in discussion and voting.
- f. All motions presented at the General Meeting shall be decided by a majority vote and all voting shall be by show of hands or unless a written vote is demanded. The decision of the Chairperson of the result of the voting shall be sufficient evidence of the result. Whenever one or more members present at a meeting demand a poll on any question, the Chairperson shall take the poll by secret ballot and may appoint scrutineers and in the case of any equality of votes, the Chairperson shall cast the deciding vote.

2. Executive Meetings

Meetings of the Executive shall be held on the call of the President or on the call of any four (4) or more members of the Executive. The Chairperson of any meeting shall not vote excepting in the case of a tie vote; the Chairperson shall have the deciding vote.

A quorum at the Executive Meeting shall be five (5) members of the Executive.

- a. In the event that any Officer or Director is unable to fill his/her office through resignation, death or other cause, the Executive shall fill the vacancy with a qualified member of the Club. Any successor so named must be resident of the Province of Alberta.
- b. Should any officer or Director move his/her residence to any other province than Alberta or should he/she state his/her intention to be absent from the Province of Alberta for any period longer than three (3) consecutive months the Executive shall have the power to declare vacant the office held by such Executive member and may appoint from duly qualified members in good standing of the Club a member to fill the vacancy.
- c. Any Director missing two (2) consecutive Directors' meetings without valid extenuating circumstances may be relieved of his/her position by majority vote of the remaining Officers and Directors. Notification will be done in accordance with Article VI.

3. Electronic Meeting

Regular, Special General Meetings and meetings of the Executive of the Club may be held by electronic means (i.e. email or other internet communications, telephone conference calls) but are subject to the following:

- a. A majority of the Club members have access to the appropriate electronic media required for the meeting, as verified by their response to a call for any particular meeting. The quorum required for regular meetings or meetings of the Executive shall apply, dependent on the type of meeting (i.e. For Regular or Special General Meetings, ten (10) of the ordinary members in good standing shall constitute a quorum, or for Meetings of the Executive, five (5) members of the executive shall constitute a quorum). Once the quorum is established it shall be assumed to be present until the meeting is adjourned.
- b. The technology used for electronic meetings shall allow members full access to and full participation in all meeting transactions, continuously or intermittently throughout the specified time for the meeting.
- c. The minimum affirmative vote required for the adoption of any motion shall be that of the majority of the quorum.
- d. The Board shall establish procedural rules with respect to the conduct of electronic meetings.
- e. For electronic meetings of the Executive, all Executive members must have access to the electronic media in order for e-meetings to be held.

4. Annual General Meeting

- a. The Club shall hold an Annual General Meeting in February, at a place, date and hour designated by the Executive. Written notice of the annual meeting shall be sent by post, email, telephone or fax to each member by the Secretary at least 21 days prior to the date of the meeting;
- b. Candidates for the positions of Officers and Directors will be presented to the meeting by the Nominating Committee from a list of members in good standing of the Club;
